A nonprofit group will hold a fundraiser in Littleton Saturday night to raise money to pay for vacations for wounded veterans.

The group, Vacations for Warriors, which was founded in 2014, will hold its second annual Luau fundraiser at Elks Lodge 1650 in Littleton, located at 5749 S. Curtice St., at 6 p.m. Live music will be provided by Lee Donovan.

The theme of the event will be Paniolo, the version of cowboys style in Hawaii. There will be a raffle drawing for a Caribbean cruise to further support the charity.

American Airlines has donated 1 million air miles to help send veterans and their families to destinations like Hawaii and Disneyland.
